AFRICA: THE MOST ROMANTIC SETTING FOR ENGAGEMENTS, WEDDINGS AND HONEYMOONS

Denver, CO (January 28, 2009) – Romance can be found among the waves of the Indian Ocean, across the planes of the Serengeti and to the far reaches of the Zambezi River. Whether couples are looking to propose, tie the knot or commemorate their nuptials, romantic Africa can be the perfect destination for any passionate escape.

Expert African travel specialist Leora Rothschild, president of Rothschild Safaris (<http://www.rothschildsafaris.com>), has designed numerous personalized romantic African travel itineraries designed to highlight the most romantic occasions in one's life. One of Rothschild's favorite romantic African travel destinations is Tongabezi Lodge in Zambia. In fact this expert African travel specialist likes Tongabezi so much, she chose to have her own wedding there.

"I've been on over 200 safaris and have stayed at hundreds of different types of accommodations and I think this lodge is the most romantic," explains Leora. "My wedding was absolutely beautiful and there was little I had to do. The lodge staff was very helpful leaving me to focus only on my new husband and our gorgeous surroundings."

Couples can get married or engaged at the edge of the Victoria Falls or on a quite private island; both with spectacular views. After the big day the happy duo can stay in the concealed Honeymoon house complete with a private balcony where guests can arrange for a dreamy candle lit dinner.

Another perfect place to spend time with the one you love is Seychelles. Ideally located on what has been called “one of the most beautiful islands on earth”, North Island Premier is an ideal place to spend a romantic Africa vacation. Couples can stay in one of only 11 hand-crafted villas built on the edge of the shoreline just steps from the powder-white sand.

The bush is a great romantic alternative to the typical beach setting and The Ngorongoro Crater Lodge is one of the most luxurious in this area. The lodge incorporates the natural settings of the bush and the local Maasai culture into its beautiful design. The intimate suites are overflowing with history and romance in addition to an exclusive butler service imply pure luxury, making the lodge a perfect place for an engagement, wedding, honeymoon or just a romantic vacation. Couples can partake in game drives, picnics on the crater floor and romantic dinners at the lodge making it a favorite for expert romantic Africa travel specialists like Rothschild Safaris.
