CLASSIC AUSTRALIAN ADVENTURE TOURS

ABOUT AUSTRALIA

Australia is a nation of boundless adventure, with vastly disparate landscapes, the majestic ocean surrounding its coastline and numerous fascinating, prehistoric destinations scattering its interior.

From its culturally-diverse cities, you can quickly find yourself in more remote locations, discovering Australia's endemic wildlife and captivating history.

While many - from foreign backpackers to domestic retirees - navigate their way around this vast nation, few are able to experience exclusive luxury adventure across its eight states and territories. From chartering a private yacht on the Great Barrier Reef and swimming with whale sharks in Western Australia to enjoying a surf lesson in Sydney, expertly coached by a professional surfer, this portfolio comprises a wealth of adventurous and exceptional luxury tours to suit all travelers.

Adventure is in the eye of the beholder, and whether you are an adrenalin junkie or favor a more leisurely exploration, Australia is ripe with potential.

Discover the adventures of Australia...

QUICK FACTS:

- 'Outback' Australia encompasses most states, but the Northern Territory is the most iconic region
- Australia possesses some 12,000 beaches, from the globally-popular Bondi to the secluded Wineglass Bay in Tasmania
- There are many landmarks to explore by car or on foot, but taking to the air captures the vastness & beauty of the landscape
- Australia's First Nations people hold reverence for many landmarks - Uluru, for example, is thought to have been created by a wallaby and two snakes playing together
- Australia has a history of adventure, from the early explorers to outback livestock stations & the national passion for camping
- Whether within major cities or far from any town, adventure can be found everywhere
